The Seventh International Symposium on Dielectric Materials and Applications
ISyDMA'7
Poznań - Poland
September 12 – 16, 2022

ISyDMA<sup>7</sup>

12-16.09.2022

Organized by:
Institute of Molecular Physics Polish Academy of Sciences in Poznań in cooperation with
Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań and its Foundation

Dear Colleagues,

We kindly remind you that the registration of the participants of the ISyDMA'7 conference, which will take place in Poznań from 12 to 16 September 2022, is in progress.

The conference is addressed to materials scientists, physicists, chemists, and electrical engineers engaged in basic and applied research or technical investigations on dielectric materials.

We welcome submissions on any aspect of dielectric materials used broadly in electronics, photonics, biotechnology, modeling and theory, and dielectric devices for biotechnological and industrial applications and the studies of dielectric properties, polarization phenomena, electric conductivity, and surface and interfacial phenomena in these materials.

Details of the conference fee and other registration information you may find on: <https://www.isydma7.com/>

On behalf of the Scientific and Organizing Committees,

Maria Zdanowska-Frączek
Chair of ISyDMA'7 Symposium

We cordially invite you to visit Poznań, to attend ISyDMA'7!
